

"The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?" — Psalm 27:1

Heavenly Father, You alone are my refuge and my strength. I praise You because You are greater than every challenge I face. Let Your presence surround me, remove every fear from my heart, and help me trust You completely. In Jesus' name, Amen. ■

Confess Your Heart Before God

Confess Your Heart Before God

Before praying against spiritual attacks, ask God to cleanse your heart from bitterness, pride, or unforgiveness.

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." — 1 John 1:9

Lord, search my heart today. Remove every sinful attitude that prevents me from walking closely with You. Fill me with Your mercy, wisdom, and love so my prayers honor Your name. Amen.

Pray with Faith in God's Justice

God never ignores injustice. However, He works according to His perfect wisdom and timing.

"Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God." — Romans 12:19

Father, I release every offense into Your hands. Defend me according to Your righteousness. Let every evil plan fail, and allow Your perfect will to prevail in every situation. I trust Your justice completely. Amen. †■
